OFFICIALS TAKE STEPS TO STAMP OUT TRAFFIC IN COCAINE AND DOPE

Assistant city attorney Brown, police judge Lea and the whole police department have declared open warfare on the cocaine traffic, flende and drug traffic which they believe is doing much harm to the city.

Attorney Brown is making investigations and will soon swear to complaints against several druggists. It is estimated. A number of "cokes" flende recently jailed by the police have made disclosures as to where they obtain their supply and attorney Brown is gathering evidence to complete the cases.

In police court Tuesday night John Pate, a negro, who admitted snuffing cocaine, had two bottles in his possession. He promised to tell the police all he knew about where it could be obtained, and said he could get it without a prescription at almost any drug store.

George Noble, who confessed to being a morphine user, was given 24 hours to get out of town under penalty of being confined in jail during the entire summer.

"I'm going to rid the town of you dope flende," said Judge Lea. "I'm also going to put a stop to the promiscuous selling of the stuff by druggists. So you'd better go while the walking is good."

J. M. Brown, a druggist, pleaded guilty to unlawfully selling cocaine. He conducts a drug store at Third and Oregon streets. A fine of $25 was assessed against him, which he paid. Other offenders will probably be up in two or three days, the police say.

SILVER CITY PASTOR GIVES ADDRESS AT LAS CRUCES

Las Cruces, N. M., June 29.—Rev. W. L. Williamson, pastor of the Baptist church of Silver City, gave an open air temperance lecture here Tuesday night. It is probably the first time in the history of the community that an open air meeting of this character has been held here. A large crowd was present, and a majority of those present were in sympathy with the speaker, as a strong prohibition sentiment prevails here. Mr. Williamson, who was for years a liquor drummer and later a saloon keeper, based his lecture on personal experiences.

LAS CRUCES PARK LAWN ATTRACTS MUCH ATTENTION

Las Cruces, N. M., June 29.—The object lesson in lawn building by Capt. S. J. Woodhull at his Park Hotel property is attracting attention. Three years ago it was barren but now a carpet of velvet green covers its surface with here and there flower beds in relief and bordered with evergreens and rare shade trees.

NEIGHBORHOOD ROW GETS INTO COURTS

Considerable of a Mixup Around the Head of "Doc" Bosley.

A neighborhood feud, which, according to the police, has been raging in the vicinity of 806 Texas street for the past two months, is having an airing this afternoon in justice McClintock's court, while three of the participants, a man and two women, have been arrested, the man having two charges against him of assault and disturbing the peace.

"Doc" Bosley, residing at 806 Texas street, it is alleged, has been having trouble with both his wife and neighbors. He was arrested and fined several days ago on a charge of slapping a little girl belonging to Mrs. Minnie Howe, a neighbor. Next, Mrs. Howe and a Mrs. Burns had a mixup, which forms the basis for the justice court case. Mrs. Burns swore to the complaint on a charge of disturbing the peace. Then Mrs. Howe tried to get a warrant for Mrs. Burns in justice Watson's court and was refused. Then she went to the police court and Mrs. Burns was arrested on a similar charge, being released under bond. Bosley is a witness in this case.

Tuesday evening Bosley had trouble with his wife. A neighbor heard cries, rushed in and interfered. Then Bosley is alleged to have called into him. Patrolman Smith stopped the bout and took Bosley to police headquarters, where he gave the name of D. C. Orlick. He was released under $25 bond.

ADA GETS A RIDE.

Ada Anderson, well dressed and so well heeled she could hardly navigate, according to the police, was picked up on Texas street Tuesday afternoon and given a ride in the wagon to police station. Her case comes up this afternoon.

HOW MUCH OF THIS WILL VOTERS STAND FOR?

How do you stand, Mr. Voter? Is your right to vote worth anything to you? And are you willing that your vote should be delivered together with the offices of El Paso county at the nod and behest of the scoundrel boss? How much longer, Mr. Voter, do you expect to leave the disposition of El Paso county office to one man?

Think about this and when you realize the full import, decide whether you stand for a boss in El Paso county politics or for Mr. Hall for sheriff.—Adv.

THREE PANES OF PLATE GLASS BROKEN IN RUNAWAY.

L. W. Hoffecker Reports Short Ride and Serious Loss Near Torreon—A Bee and a Mule Responsible.

L. W. Hoffecker has returned from Torreon, Mex., where he went to deliver an order of plate glass. The glass was never delivered, because of a runaway in which a mule and five Mexicans figured as the leading comedian and supporting company. The plate glass, three big, full sized panes, was loaded onto a wagon and the mule loaded to action. Five Mexicans were employed to support the glass in transit.

When the glass was about half way to its destination, a bee stung the mule into instant action. With utter disregard for the fragile cargo in tow the mule put on the high speed clutch. Plate glass and Mexicans were scattered over the surrounding landscape with no more fatal results than a tent of three injured Mexicans, who were sent to the hospital.

RETURNS FROM FAMILY REUNION IN ARKANSAS.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Miller, 1814 East Boulevard, returned Tuesday night from Rogers, Ark., where they attended the annual family reunion at the home of Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller. Mr. Miller, who is a Southern Pacific passenger conductor, states the reunion was attended by the seven sons and their wives and children, and their only sister. Of the seven sons, all but one are railroad men. Hugh Miller, one of the sons, is well known in El Paso. The reunion dinner, Mr. Miller states, was attended by 20 of the immediate family.

TEXAS POLITICS.

tial returns from a poll of Texas editors, which began several weeks ago, with the gubernatorial race.

The personal choice of the editors so far as received, shows the following: For Conquitt, 70; Polindexter, 65; Johnson, 54, and Davidson, 42.

In the same letters, the editors give estimates as to who is likely to carry their several counties.

This shows that many counties will not go according to the personal preference of the editors as follows: Conquitt, 82 counties; Polindexter, 68 counties; Johnson, 28 counties, and Davidson, 29 counties.

DAVIDSON TO ADDRESS A COLORADO GATHERING

Colorado, Tex., June 29.—The mid-summer carnival will begin here tomorrow.
